Stunning converted double bedroom, first floor, apartment with period features, located in central Brighton. Offered to let un-furnished. Available 31st October 2023.

Situated in a beautiful Regency building with period features including high ceilings, original cornice and arched windows, offering an abundance of light, this apartment is really something special.

Sillwood Place is a Grade II listed building within close proximity to all that Brighton has to offer, the seafront is just at the end of the road and the town centre is close by.

Created to offer city apartment living at its finest, Sillwood Place has been sensitively converted from a former regency home, into five luxury apartments.

This one bedroom apartment, located on the first floor, offers an open plan living space, stylish bedroom and a modern shower room. The kitchen area features attractive decorative wall tiling, splash backs and Bosch integrated appliances. The apartment offers oak flooring to all living areas with the added benefit of fitted wardrobes and additional storage in the bedroom. There is also a further storage/study space.

Sillwood Place is located in central Brighton and offers the discerning buyer fantastic access to all manner of amenities especially along Western Road, to include a large supermarket, numerous boutique cafés and the popular Churchill Square shopping centre.

This lovely property is offered to let un-furnished and being available to move into from the 31st October.

Holding Fee is equal to one weeks rent (£288).
