This spacious two double bedroom apartment is located on Norton Road in Hove, having a range of shops, bars and food eateries nearby on Church Road

Regular running bus services are also on hand travelling both east and west of the city. For the commuters, Hove mainline train station is within half a mile of the property.

You will be amazed with the amount of space and light this property offers, arranged over the second and third floor of this period building.

On the second floor, there is a good size open plan kitchen/breakfast room with a separate area which could be used as an office or for additional storage. At the front of the property is the living room with feature fireplace, painted floorboards and two large windows, with fitted shutter blinds, overlooking Norton Road. To finish off this floor is the spacious bathroom with best of both worlds, having a bath and separate shower.

Up on the third floor are both bedrooms and an additional walk-in storage cupboard. The main bedroom has an en-suite with double ended free standing roll top bath with free standing mixer tap and hand shower.

This property is offered to let on a six month tenancy to begin with, our landlord is also prepared to be flexible on the furnishing levels, available from the end of January 2022.
